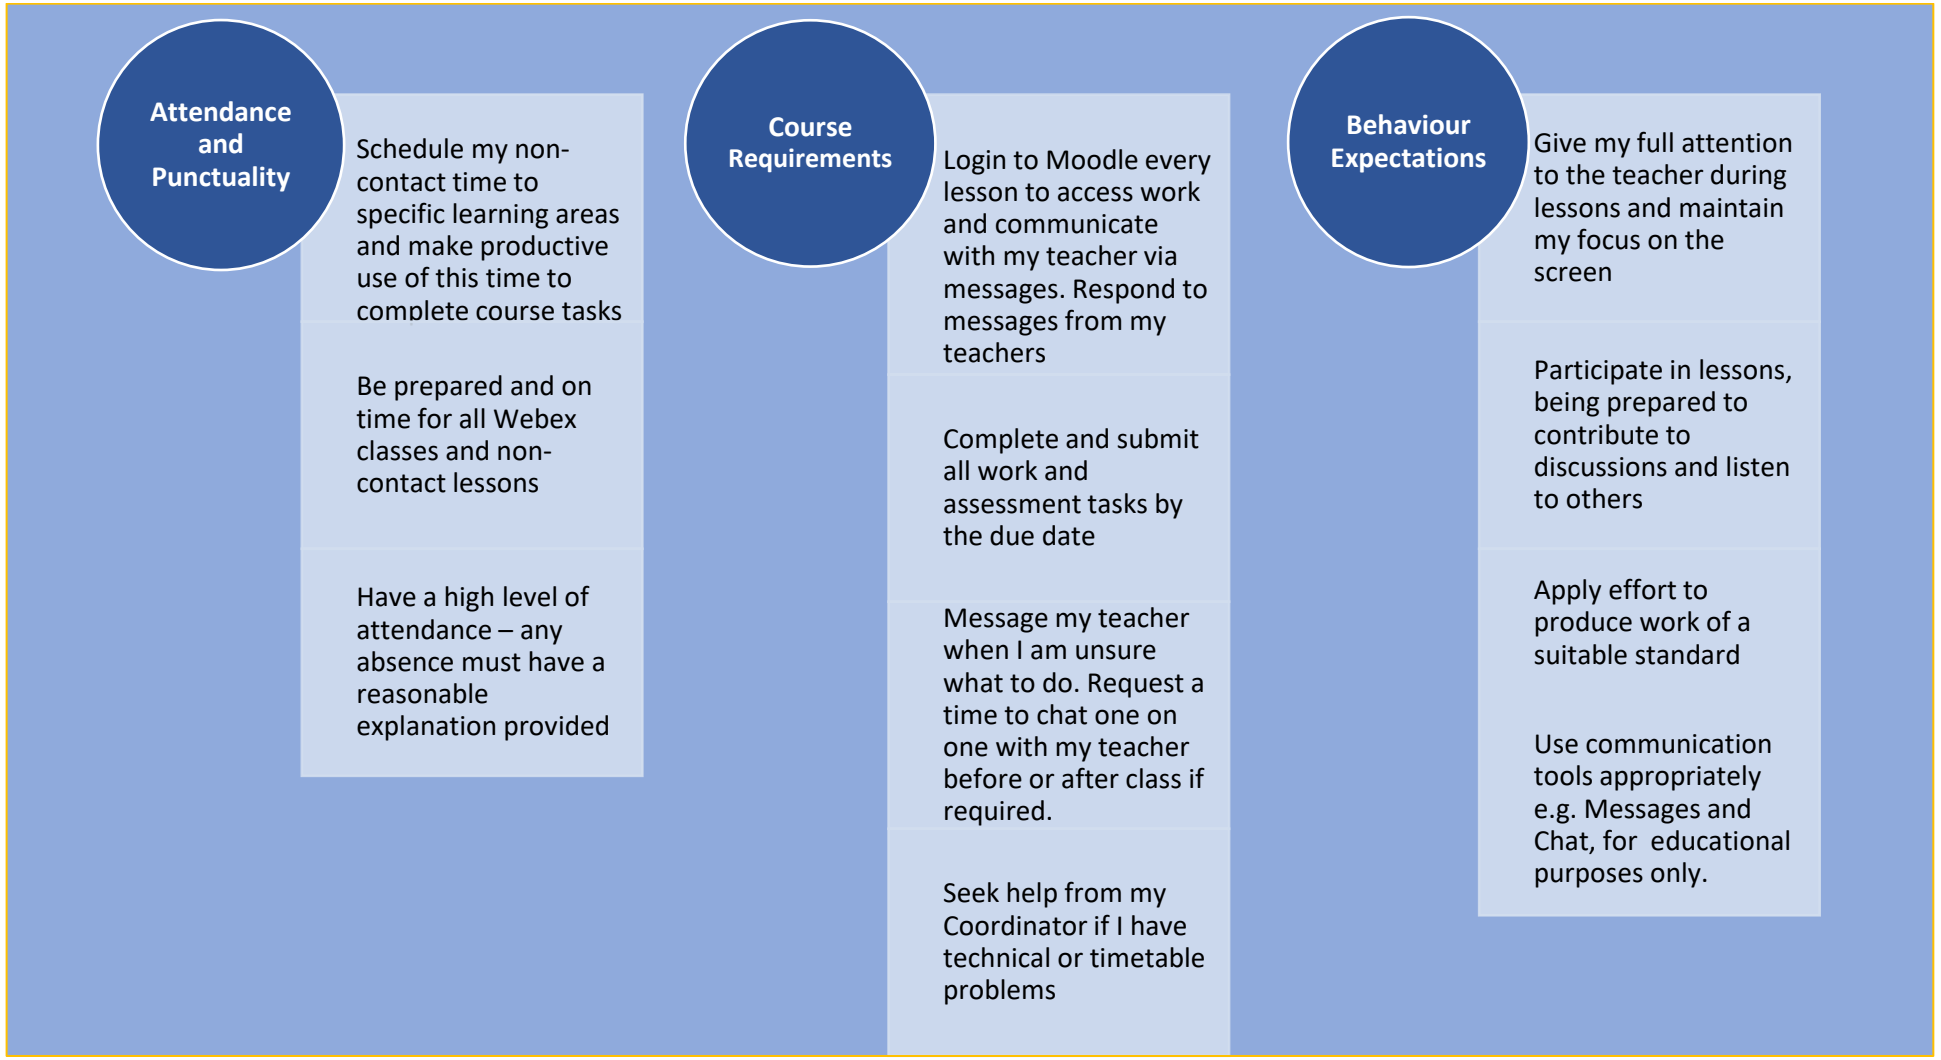
GT Online Good Standing Policy

Good Standing is issued when you enter the GT Online program and at the commencement of each school year.

To maintain Good Standing, you need to do the following;



Your teachers and coordinators will support you and help you to become a successful online learner.

You need to take responsibility for what YOU can do to make this happen.

LOSS OF GOOD STANDING

The Program Coordinator will recommend loss of Good Standing if a student:

- cannot provide reasonable explanation for PERSISTENT absences
- is PERSISTENTLY late to class without satisfactory explanation
- is demonstrating CONSISTENT poor application, late/unsatisfactory completion of homework or coursework, comes unprepared for lessons, or does not respect the rights of others to learn.

NOTIFICATION

The Program Coordinator will notify the student, parents and School Coordinator when a student is at risk of losing their Good Standing. If consistent significant improvement is not made by the student, there will be a loss of Good Standing.

CONSEQUENCES OF LOSS OF GOOD STANDING

A student without Good Standing will

- not be able to attend the GT Online camp
- not be selected as a representative of the GT Online Program in extra-curricular activities
- have their suitability for participation in the GT Online Program reviewed

RETURN TO GOOD STANDING

Parents/guardians of students who lose their Good Standing will be contacted to discuss the loss, what the consequences are in terms of loss of privileges and how Good Standing can be regained.

THINGS TO DO WHEN YOU'RE AT RISK OF LOSING YOUR GOOD STANDING

- Initiate discussion with Mrs Mirco, your School Coordinator or your GT Online teacher/s
- Design a plan of action to improve
- Follow your plan of action
- Report back to Mrs Mirco, your School Coordinator or your GT Online teacher/s

THE GT ONLINE GOOD STANDING POLICY IS PROVIDED TO MAINTAIN CONSISTENCY IN DECISION-MAKING PROCESSES
ANY DECISION TO WITHDRAW OR MAINTAIN GOOD STANDING WILL BE AT THE DISCRETION OF THE PROGRAM COORDINATOR
